Dealer Comments
Meet the 2027 Ford Maverick, a new truck built for day-to-day life. Heated seats make the first cold morning easy, and keyless entry means no fumbling with bags at the tailgate. Navigation and cruise control let you set it and forget it on longer drives, and the rear camera takes the stress out of backing into tight spots. It has aluminum wheels and LED tail lights to finish the look, plus airbags for peace of mind. Take the Maverick for a quick drive and see how it fits.
