Dealer Comments

This used 2019 Ram 1500 is the kind of truck that makes the job feel a little easier and the commute more comfortable. The 1500 stays composed on the highway with cruise control that takes the fuss out of long stretches, while the rear camera helps you back into tight spots without a second guess. Premium sound makes short drives feel longer for the right reasons, and the tire pressure monitoring and airbags are there for sensible peace of mind. Stop by and take it for a spin.
