Dealer Comments
This 2025 Ford Mustang is a used coupe that still feels new with just 5,404 miles on the clock. It delivers sporty performance without killing your trips to the pump, and those low miles mean plenty of weekends left to enjoy it. Heated seats make cold starts bearable, the rear camera takes the stress out of tight parking, and Bluetooth plus cruise control keep long drives easy. Tire pressure monitoring and dual exhaust tips round out a tidy package for someone who wants a focused, fun ride.
