Dealer Comments
Say hello to the 2027 Ford Expedition Max. This new SUV is built for the family day-to-day and the long haul - plenty of space for car seats, groceries, and impromptu road-trip detours. Backing into tight spots is easier with the rear camera and keyless entry keeps your hands free when the kids and bags need both arms. Bluetooth keeps playlists and calls simple, cruise control steadies the interstate miles, and the cabin air filtration helps everyone breathe a little easier. The Expedition Max is ready for life.
