Dealer Comments
This used 2021 Ford Expedition feels like a family car that actually understands family life. Big enough for car seats and sports bags, it also brings strong towing capability for trailers or boats. The sunroof turns a long drive into something worth remembering, and navigation keeps you moving without the detours. Backing up is easy with the rear camera, and cruise control makes highway hours more comfortable. Features include: navigation, sunroof, rear camera, cruise control and aluminum wheels.
