Dealer Comments

This used 2023 Ford F-150 shows just 34,975 miles and still feels young. The truck was built for hauling and towing but returns great gas mileage, so it works as well for the weekend load as the daily drive. Low mileage for its age means more years of trouble-free use, and simple comforts like cruise control make long stretches easy. Safety and convenience include a security system, tire pressure monitoring, cabin air filtration and multiple airbags. Come take it for a spin.
