Dealer Comments
Meet the 2026 Ford F-150. This new truck is built to take the long haul without fuss - set the cruise control, point the navigation, and let the miles pass by. Backing into a tight spot is simpler with the rear camera, and the tire pressure monitoring system takes one more worry off your list. Cabin air filtration keeps the cab feeling fresh after a dusty job site. Aluminum wheels and dual exhaust tips add a finished look without showing off.
