Dealer Comments
This used 2017 GMC Sierra 2500HD was built for hauling and towing, and it feels ready when the trailer hitsched up. Leather seats make long runs comfortable, the navigation keeps you moving without fumbling for directions, and the rear camera takes the stress out of backing into tight spots. A sunroof opens up the cabin on a clear morning, and cruise control settles in for the long highway stretch. Features include: leather seats, navigation, sunroof, rear camera and cruise control.
