Dealer Comments
The 2025 GMC Sierra 2500HD is built for hauling and towing and it feels like it the first time you point it down the road with a load behind you. Heated seats and a sunroof make long days more comfortable, while the rear camera and tire pressure monitor take the small worries off your plate. Cruise control keeps highway miles civil and the cabin air filtration helps everyone feel better when the workday ends. Take the Sierra 2500HD for a test drive and see how it fits your routine.
