Dealer Comments
This used 2020 Honda HR-V is a family friendly compact that feels grown up the moment you slide in. Heated seats warm up cold mornings, the sunroof lets fresh air and light in on longer drives, and the rear camera takes the stress out of tight parking. Set the cruise control and let the HR-V handle the highway miles, while the tire pressure monitoring system helps keep the ride smooth and safe. Take it for a test drive and see how it fits your life.
