Dealer Comments

2018 Chevrolet Silverado 1500 is a used truck that settles into the practical stuff: it starts your day with a no-fuss drive and ends it with the cargo where you left it. The rear camera makes backing into tight spots easy, aluminum wheels clean up the look, and the tire pressure monitor means fewer surprises on long runs. A security system and multiple airbags add sensible protection. Take it for a short drive and feel how straightforward ownership can be.
