Dealer Comments

This used 2025 Lincoln Aviator feels like the kind of SUV that makes mornings easier and weekends longer. With just 8,780 miles it still drives and smells that new-car way, and the low mileage for its age means more years of quiet highway miles and family trips. The sunroof brightens backseat arguments, the rear camera takes the guesswork out of tight spots, and Bluetooth plus steering wheel controls keep playlists and calls under thumb. Power mirrors, a tire pressure monitor and airbags add useful peace of mind. Come take the Lincoln Aviator for a spin and see how it fits your routine.
