Dealer Comments

2016 Hyundai Tucson is a used sedan that feels ready for the next chapter. Heated seats aside, what you notice first is how simple things are done well: the navigation keeps you moving without detours, the rear camera makes tight parking quick, and cruise control settles in for the long run. Aluminum wheels give it a bit of presence, and a tire pressure monitor takes one more guess off your list. Come see how easily it fits into the week. Installed Features
