Dealer Comments

This 2010 Bentley Continental GT is a used coupe that still feels like an event every time you drive it, and with just 24,312 miles it has low mileage for its age. The luxury brand presence is unmistakable on the road and in the cabin, where navigation and Bluetooth make getting somewhere effortless and enjoyable. Keyless entry saves you the pocket-dig the first time you arrive, while rear LED lights and a tire pressure monitor add sensible modern touches. Come see it and take a quiet lap around the block.
