Dealer Comments
This used 2023 Mercedes-Benz C Class has just 14,721 miles and shows why a luxury brand can still be sensible to own. The sedan feels composed on the highway and returns solid gas mileage without asking for anything dramatic. Open the sunroof on a clear day, adjust the power mirrors without fuss, and let the cabin air filtration keep the interior fresh. Safety-minded touches include a tire pressure monitor and bright rear LED lights. Take a closer look and see if it fits your routine.
