Dealer Comments
2019 Audi A4 that still feels composed and refined, with great gas mileage for daily runs and longer trips. The leather seats make short drives feel a little more civilized and the sunroof opens the cabin when the weather cooperates. Backup is easier with the rear camera, and Bluetooth and steering wheel controls keep your focus where it belongs. Smooth highway miles come courtesy of cruise control, while tire pressure monitoring and airbags handle the basics. Take it for a test drive and see.
